Dear recruiting manager ,

Casgo care

Brighton and hove,

United kingdom.

I am writing to you today regarding the care worker position. I would be a great fit for your company. Currently, I have three years work experience in a care home and more than two year experience in front office receptionist the skill and knowledge I have developed would make me a great candidate for this position.

I have a passion to care and make a positive difference which from I research, as do Casgo care. I have advanced health and social care qualifications which puts me in a great position to support clients effectively.

I am hardworking and dependable individual who takes great satisfaction in seeing the work I do make a difference. genuine care and respect of the client's needs are always my priority. I believe my friendly personality what has made me excel in my current position looking for a company that will allow me to continue to develop my skills and abilities.

I am very keen to work with you on your vacancy as your company has a very good reputation with in the care industry for providing a high standard of care. I hope to hear from you soon to discuss my application and suitability for this role further.

Yours Sincerely,

Rahana s.
